Product Announcement

Graham is very excited to announce our new Sketch Door™ collection of architectural flush wood doors. Available in three standard designs and six standard species, Sketch Doors™ are an economical alternative to traditional stile and rail doors. They can also be designed specifically for your project and are an exciting way to express your creativity.

Sketch Doors™ are offered in particleboard, agrifiber, mineral, engineered composite, and acoustical cores. FSC certification and no added urea formaldehyde are just two of the environmentally friendly options that are available.
